

The Principal
Fitzroy High School

Dear Madame,

I am a survivor of the Holocaust. Last Tuesday I had the pleasure to address your students about my experiences under the occupation in World War 2 and the courageous people who helped me survive. I have great pleasure in letting you know that your students were the best, most active group I have encountered so far. They obviously listened with interest to my talk and paid attention to the topic. They rewarded me with a number of questions showing that they understood what I was talking about and got involved in the topic. Even the last personal question about my mother's survival was proof of their involvement. I wish thus to express my admiration for your school.

Please let your students involved in the Courage to Care event know my appreciation of their interest. I hope they will use this experience in their relationships with other students and have always the courage to stand up to bullies.

With my deepest respect,
